

16 February 2006

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Inquest Law Reports now available on Justis.com

Justis Publishing Limited¹, the electronic legal information publisher, currently publishes the most authoritative electronic case law reports which constitute binding legal precedent online and on CD-ROM.

Fresh on the Justis.com service, the Inquest Law Reports (2000 - present) is the only publication which aims to collect all cases relevant to inquest law readily in one publication.

Anthony Spratt, Marketing Manager at Justis Publishing says “This title is a great addition to Justis Publishing's growing suite of products and is an indispensable resource for Coroners, larger private practice firms and local authority legal departments.”

Inquest Law Reports provide the full text of judgments from the High Court, Court of Appeal, House of Lords and relevant judgments from the European Court of Human Rights on Article 2. Each case has a headnote prepared by a team of barristers and solicitors who specialise in inquest law. Furthermore, this collection combines the growing number of cases argued in the High Court involving inquest law as well as cases relevant to the work of Coroner's Courts.

For further information contact Victoria MacLean on +44 (0)20 7284 8087 or at communications@justis.com.

¹ Notes for editors:

Justis Publishing Ltd has been publishing titles online and on CD-ROM since 1986 and has secured a leading position in this sector, concentrating particularly on United Kingdom and European Union legal, official and business information. Justis customers come from legal and financial professions, government and the academic community in 84 countries worldwide.