

Prestigious law firms support Caselex

[Luxembourg, 7 April 2008]: Eight highly esteemed law firms have joined Caselex to guide and review its national case law linked to EU law, bringing a boost to the case law coverage and its new alert service “Caselex Weekly”.

Network of excellence in EU’s business law

The first-class law firms associated with Caselex provide comprehensive high quality legal advice in all sectors of business law, next to representing a network of excellence in EU law. Consequently the quality of Caselex’ case law selection and case digests will be ensured by the eight firms:

- Bonelli Erede Pappalardo (Italy)
- De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek (Netherlands)
- Føyen Advokatfirma DA (Norway)
- Lejins, Torgans & Partneri (Latvia)
- Bredin Prat (France)
- Etude Patrick Goergen (Luxembourg)
- Hengeler Mueller (Germany)
- URÍA MENÉNDEZ (Spain)

Law firms to boost case coverage

Caselex, having recently launched the first cases on EU’s public procurement law as its sixth area of law, will be fuelled by the support of the law firms to expand into wider court coverage plus additional areas of law. Moreover the network will also pave the way for additional countries and law firms to be associated. The contributions of the partners in the law firms will be clearly visible within Caselex, allowing users to easily identify key experts on EU law.

Caselex weekly

In relation with the support of the law firms, Caselex has rolled out “Caselex Weekly” offering a weekly e-mail service to monitor the latest cases published by the service. Users can effortlessly stay on top of recent cases of professional interest by subscribing to any of the six case law channels:

- Company law
- Intellectual Property law
- Competition law
- Labour law
- Consumer protection law
- Public procurement law
